

Child health indicators: Smoking in pregnancy

Final update: Kent – 2014/15

Produced by

Del Herridge, Public Health Product & Data Manager

Zara Cuccu, Public Health Analyst

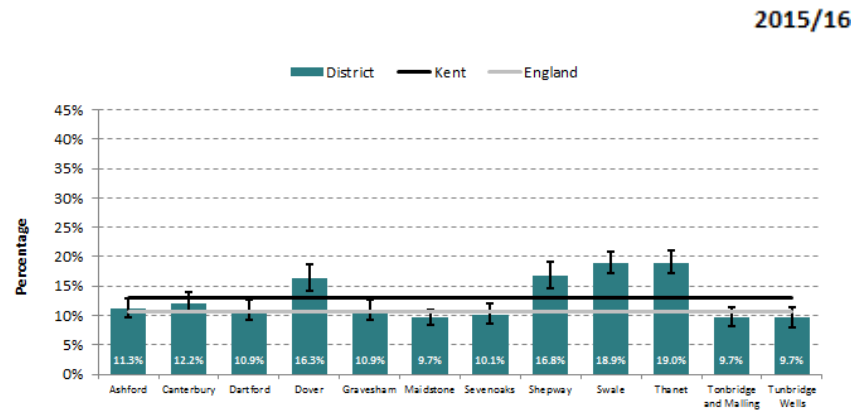

Smoking at time of delivery

The percentage of women smoking at time of delivery was 13.0% in Kent, higher than England at 10.6% in 2015/16.

Analysis of the trend, shows that Kent has decreased from 17.1% in 2009/10. This is similar to England, which has also decreased from 14.1%.

Women smoking at time of delivery was higher than Kent in Dover, Shepway, Swale and Thanet.

Smoking status at time of delivery: district

Source: HSCIC & PHBF, prepared by KPHO (ZC), July 2016

*modelled from CCG to district using births 2014/15.

Smoking status at time of delivery: Number of women known to smoke at time of delivery as a proportion of all maternities.